ORDER ON MOTION

On February 13, 2007, Defendant Adam Lamar Robinson, filed a Motion for Release from Custody (Doc. # 53). The Government filed a response opposing the motion (Doc. #54). Upon consideration of the motion, it is ORDERED that the motion is DENIED based on the evidence presented during the detention hearing, which established by a preponderance that Defendant had the means and the apparent desire to create explosive devices in his home. The Court found that Defendant posed a substantial and life-endangering menace to society and that there were no conditions or combination of conditions which would reasonably guarantee the safety of the community or Defendant himself (Doc. #34). The Court continues to find Defendant poses a substantial and life-endangering risk to society and himself.
